6. Govt.Letter.No.17026/ Vig.I(2)/2002-14, dt.17.2.2010.
7. APPSC Letter No. 442/RT.I/2010, Dated.29.7.2010.

ORDER:-

Whereas, it has been brought to the notice of the Government that Sri N.V. Subba Raju formerly working at Integrated Check Post, B.V. Palem, Tada, Nellore District is indulging in corrupt practices and the ACB Officials conducted surprise check on 29-1-2001.

2. Whereas, after considering the materials submitted by the ACB, the Government have entrusted the case to Tribunal for disciplinary Proceedings with the following charge to conduct and enquire into the alleged allegation against Sri N.V.Subba Raju, Junior Commercial Tax Inspector vide reference 1st read above:-

“That you, Sri N. Venkata Subba Raju, while working as Jr. Commercial Tax Inspector, I.C.P., B.V. Palem, Tada (M), Nellore District were actuated by corrupt motive and in abuse of your official position collected illegal gratifications from the lorry drivers and was found in possession of Rs.56/- unauthorizedly during the surprise check conducted by the ACB officials on 29.12.2001 from 2.30 a.m. to 5.15 a.m. and that thereby you are guilty of misconduct within the meaning of Rule 2(b) of the A.P. Civil Services (Disciplinary Proceedings Tribunal) Rules, 1989 framed under the A.P. Civil Services (Disciplinary Proceedings Tribunal) Act, 1960 as amended in 1993.”

3. Whereas, in the reference 2nd read above, after conducting the regular enquiry, the Secretary, Tribunal for disciplinary Proceedings has submitted report. The Tribunal for disciplinary Proceedings in its report held that the prosecution was able to establish the charge leveled against the Charged Officer who was guilty in violation of instructions of the Government and also possessing excessive un-explained amount which must probably be deemed as ill-gotten.

4. Whereas, in the reference 3rd read above, the Government have issued Show cause Notice to Sri N.V.Subba Raju, Junior Commercial Tax Inspector as to why a suitable punishment should not be imposed under rule 9 of APCS (CCA) Rules, 1991 against him and directed him to submit his explanation within 15 days from the date of receipt of the Show Cause Notice. The CCT has sent the served copy to the Government vide reference 4th cited which was served on 13.5.2008, since then Sri N.V.Subba Raju, Junior Commercial Tax Inspector has not submitted any explanation.

5. Government have carefully examined the matter and provisional decision has been taken to impose the punishment of 15% cut in pension permanently on Sri N.V.Subba Raju, Junior Commercial Tax Inspector(Retired). Accordingly a show cause notice was also issued to the Accused Officer vide reference 5th cited and he was instructed to submit his representation if any within 15 days. But Sri N.V.Subba Raju has not submitted any representation even after grant of another 15 days time to submit his representation.

6. Whereas, concurrence of the AP. Public Service Commission was also been obtained in the instant case vide reference 7th read above.

7. Now, therefore, in exercise of powers conferred under the Andhra Pradesh Revised Pension Rules, 1980, Government hereby impose punishment of 15% cut in pension permanently on Sri N.V.Subba Raju, formerly Junior Commercial Tax Inspector (Retired).

8 The Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, A.P., and Hyderabad is requested to take further action accordingly and to send Action Taken Report to Government at an early date.
